RE: 250873023

Dear Ms. Chesser:

Thank you for your recent passport application.

The photograph you submitted cannot be used because the image size measured from the chin to the top of your head is less than 1 inch or more than 1 3/8 inches.

Please submit a passport photograph or the requested documentation. The photograph must be:

- Taken within the last six months in the United States, showing current appearance;
- 2 x 2 inches in overall size;
- Between 1 inch and 1 3/8 inches from the top of the head to the bottom of the chin;
- Taken against a white or off-white background;
- Clear with a centered, full-frontal view of the applicant's face;
- Taken in normal attire:
 - Military attire and law enforcement uniforms cannot be worn in passport photographs;
 - Do not wear a hat or headgear that obscures the hairline unless for religious or medical reasons;
 - Dark or tinted glasses are not acceptable unless for medical reasons.

Note: Please print your name and date of birth on the back of any photographs submitted to Passport Services using a pencil or ball point pen to ensure that the signature does not bleed through the photograph.

We appreciate your assistance in this matter so that we may continue processing your passport application. If we do not receive the requested information within ninety (90) days from the date of this letter; or the information you submit is insufficient to establish your entitlement to a U.S. passport in accordance with the relevant provisions of Part 51, Title 22 of the Code of Federal Regulations, your application will be denied and your evidence returned to you. By law, the passport execution and application fees are non-refundable. Any special return postage will be returned or refunded.
